Errata

Page 63

Paper I

Page 8 of 12

The graphs in Figure 3 have included too many virus positive cases in December 2005. The correct number of virus positive cases in December 2005 is 59, as seen in the corrected graph below. Year of study have also bee added to the revised figure.

Paper II

Page 2

RESULTS, Clinical presentation, first paragraph

“Severe pneumonia was diagnosed in 132 children (5.9%).”

Should read: “Severe pneumonia was diagnosed in 131 (5.9%) children.”

Page 4

RESULTS, Clinical presentation, last sentence of 4th paragraph

“For crepitations, the association with RSV was more pronounced among infants….., the P value for interaction being 0.040."

Should read: “For crepitations, the association with RSV was more pronounced among infants….., the P value for interaction being 0.036.”
Table 1. Low birth weight was defined as ≤2500g in the characteristics column.

Should read: Low birth weight (<2500g)